

SIOUX VALLEY ENERGY RECOGNIZES JUSTIN MAHUTGA AS "SCHOLAR OF THE WEEK"

Colman, S.D. – Justin Mahutga, a student at Baltic High School, has been chosen as a Touchstone Energy Cooperative ‘Scholar of the Week’. Justin was recognized with a cash award by Sioux Valley Energy and was featured on the KSFY evening and morning news. He is the son of Rick and Cindy Mahutga of Baltic.

Touchstone Energy Cooperatives, like Sioux Valley Energy, and KSFY Television have joined together to recognize the achievements of high school seniors throughout the region. "Touchstone Energy Scholar of the Week" has been celebrating the achievements of high school seniors since 2002. Recipients are highly motivated high school seniors who excel in the classroom and community. This program was founded on the four pillars of Touchstone Energy: Integrity, Accountability, Innovation and a Commitment to Community.

“Sioux Valley Energy is proud to recognize Justin for his academic, extra-curricular and personal successes. He is a great example of a student who is motivated, intelligent and exemplifies the qualities of a leader,” said Carrie Law, Sioux Valley Energy Director of Communications and Government Relations.

Sioux Valley Energy, a Touchstone Energy Cooperative, is a customer owned-utility, providing reliable electric service at cost-based rates to over 20,000 homes, farms, businesses and industries in a seven-county area of east-central South Dakota and southwest Minnesota.
